

Fall 2008

Dear Friend:

First, we're glad to have you as a significant part of Lexington's largest soccer club. Having a child involved with Lexington County Soccer Club means that you want your child to learn about the sport of soccer in positive ways from individuals who truly know the sport. And LCSC is dedicated to player development and enhancing the sport of soccer.

Second, we are thrilled to have recently grown through club mergers that now form one large group of parents, coaches and children who thrive on soccer. Our club includes 1200 players at the recreational and club levels, plus many supportive parents, grandparents and friends.

Our LCSC coaches are devoted teachers of the sport of soccer, but they must also be trained in order to do it well. Accordingly, LCSC requires recreational coaches to secure a national youth license module course and club coaches to secure a USSF state or national license in order to provide the best coaching possible to the many children on our teams. This extra effort provides, to you and other families, many highly qualified coaches who help develop players at all levels of play.

Third, we know it's a tough economy right now, which has forced many of us to set financial priorities. You know the countless hours and energy that your family already commits to soccer. We as club officers and others as coaches also commit countless hours towards the future development of youth soccer in the Lexington area. Together we can work to develop your child's skills, building a strong foundation for continued youth development here in Lexington.

For those reasons and more, we ask you to consider making a commitment as a family to the LCSC FANS Club. The FANS acronym stands for Friends and Alumni Nurturing Soccer, because that's what Lexington United represents.

Help us to continue to develop and nurture the sport of soccer by making a gift to the FANS Club today. Together we can continue to build a strong organization that's committed to developing a love of soccer in our children.

Thanks in Advance for your Family's Commitment!!

Sincerely,

David
